

DAD

Alexandra Schmal

Who said life would be easy?
Who said life would be fun?
I thought I never go wrong, never be frowned,
Never turn back 'nto that kid that said: Dad,            take me home.

The world sais: Take all you can
Someway you win or you loose
Why play'n that game? Why stay'n that shame?
Why not turnin' back 'nto that kid that said: Dad,            take me home, tonight.

Times and times we fall, try'n to find our way back home.
In great distress we wanna know: What's the meaning of it all?
These times are precious ones, ,cause you can see where you're power comes from. Lift your eyes from yourself to where's home.

God sais: I am your father.
God sais: You're my beloved child!
You just believe! Ask you'll receive!
Trust in the one you can say: Dad,            take me home, tonight.
